Eco friendly rug making workshop

South Terrace, South Fremantle

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 2021 AT 11.30 AM Lunch – 2.30 PM

Historically rag rugs have been created across many continents and this contemporary technique explores new and traditional themes.

At this workshop you'll commence creating your rug and take home all the skills needed to work on your masterpiece.

Everything is supplied although if you have some fabric or clothing that you can't wait to use for a project, bring it along.

You will be taken on a journey being introduced to gentle forms of coiling, plaiting and design including use of textile colour combinations to adorn your home decor. The use of hand stitching your coils into a beautiful, functional rag rug is a rewarding lovely way to relax.

Leisa, your facilitator enjoys sharing her love of "Slowing down fast fashion" by using repurposing and sustainable principles across her work.

Throughout this relaxing meditative practice of plaiting, coiling and slow stitching, inspire and immerse yourself into designing your very own unique functional or decorative masterpiece! Booking t&c: Tickets non-refundable but can be passed onto someone else to attend or used for future workshop if you're unable to attend. Thank you.
